AT THE 1971 ANNUAL COUNCIL OF THE
GENERAL CONFERENCE
OF SEVENTH-DAY
ADVENTISTS

The Regional Scholarship Fund was established to serve the membership of the regional conferences located in the territory of what today is the North American Division. In addition, members served by the Offices of Regional Affairs for the North Pacific Union and Pacific Union were also eligible to apply for assistance from this fund.

THE PURPOSE for the Regional Scholarship Fund is to encourage the growth of strong leaders for the church whether recipients are ultimately hired in the church organization or whether they serve as supportive lay members.

The purpose is to encourage the growth of strong leaders.
