Purpose
The Volunteer Ministry Information Form assists churches in appointing the best possible individuals to serve within the various ministries the church offers. This form is part of a screening process which protects the volunteers, while also serving to protect children and youth from predators and the church from liability. This record, once turned in, becomes the property of the local church. Applicants may request that a copy of their Volunteer Ministry Information Form be forwarded to another church should they move their membership.

Procedure
Copies of this Volunteer Ministry Information Form are available from the church office or AK Conference Office. Ministry leaders are responsible for distributing forms to prospective volunteers, and making certain that they have completed the screening process prior to serving. The completed forms are returned to the church pastor, who passes them on to the Volunteer Screening Committee. This group, appointed by the church board, determines volunteer eligibility. The committee interviews applicants, checks references, and may request a criminal record check by the AK Conference Office. The committee's recommendation, marked on page 1, is signed and dated. The committee gives a copy of the first page of this form to the ministry leader. The applicant agrees to participate in any orientation or training programs conducted by the church or conference. The Volunteer Ministry Information Form shall be shared with another church entity only upon the applicant's written request. Any such requests will be attached to the original document and kept on file.

Policy
All information on this Volunteer Ministry Information Form is required by the North American Division. The information on this form shall be kept confidential and become a permanent record of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Volunteer records should be updated every three years. In the event of accusations against the applicant, opportunity shall be given for response by the accused. Such a response will also become a part of the record and must be attached to this form.

Acknowledgement

Because our society is filled with pain, problems, and litigation caused by improper conduct of individuals working with children and youth, it is imperative that those working with children have meaningful guidelines for conduct in order to protect both themselves and those under their care. As a ministry volunteer, you want parents and others to feel comfortable and confident with you.

My Commitment to Volunteer Ministry: I will,

1. Never leave a child or group of children for whom I am responsible unattended. I will provide appropriate supervision at all times.
2. Always have at least one other adult, 18 years of age or older, to help with the supervision of children. If I find in a situation where I am the only adult present, UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES will I allow myself to be alone with one child.
3. Always ask a child's permission before physically touching him/her anywhere, even when responding to an injury or problem. This is especially true for any area that would normally be covered by a T-shirt and/or shorts. (If an injury is within this area, make sure another adult works with you as you provide care.)
4. Refrain from physical and verbal attacks and corporal punishment which are inappropriate behaviors and should never be used as discipline. "Time outs" or "sit-in-that-chair" may be helpful methods with children.
5. Affirm children with appropriate touching by keeping hugs brief and "should-to-shoulder" or "side-to-side." (Always keep your hands at (not below) the shoulder level. A caregiver kiss should be to the forehead or cheek only—not elsewhere. For small children who like to sit on laps, I will encourage them to sit next to me.)
6. Provide extra care when taking small children to the restroom. I will take another adult along, or leave the door open.
7. Be aware of conducting activities in rooms that do not have an interior viewing area, or I will leave the door open during the activity to allow easy observation by others.
8. Cooperate with the volunteer screening process and complete the Volunteer Ministry Information Form, as required by the church.
9. Be aware of the signs and symptoms of child abuse and aware of the legal requirements for reporting suspected cases of abuse.
10. Cooperate with church leadership in conducting children and youth ministries by being a volunteer who is loving, kind, firm, and always a thoroughly professional person. Working with children and youth is not only a privilege; it is also a serious responsibility that must be approached with utmost care. As a volunteer, I will participate in orientation and training programs conducted by the church.

The North American Division of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists and Adventist Risk Management, Inc., recommend these Guidelines for Volunteers, which serve as a protection to you, your ministry, and the church from allegations of abuse

I, the undersigned, have read this document and agree to abide by the Code of Conduct and Volunteer Guidelines outlined. I will retain a copy of this document and keep it for reference.
